General Comment

Your help on this issue is very much appreciated. Thank you.

One thing I'd like to see is some guard rails for pension funds to follow. For example no investing with crooked banks like Goldman Sachs.

We had hoped that when the Department of Labor took over control of our pension with 1982 Consent Decree in order to "save" it that this issue might have been avoided with government oversight. Sadly it was not which got us to the sorry state we are in today.

I just hope that the help we are getting today will not be jeopardized by future reckless investment behavior by Central States Pension Fund. Help us not repeat the past.
